Dedication

Jovial . . . likeable . . . understanding . . . a kindly heart under a gruff exterior . . . a tireless worker in guiding the destinies of the several high school publications . . . interested in the advancement of the school in every way . . . his courses put the finishing touches on a liberal high school education.

We, the Senior Class of 1938, dedicate this volume to . . .

OLIVER S. MATHENY

Oliver S. Matheny

Foreword

YOUR Alma Mater . . . Springfield High School . . . No matter where you go . . . you will always remember school chums . . . teachers . . . good friends and romances . . . disappointments . . . joys . . . triumphs . . . scholastic and extra-curricular achievements.

Your Annual will always bring back these memories . . . and many others . . . making them seem like only yesterday . . . old friends . . . far away . . . gone but not forgotten . . . brought nearer by their pictures.

LD FAMILIAR scenes . . . steps and halls none will ever forget . . . statues . . . plaques in the corridors.

The trees in the yard . . . red and yellow and orange, gorgeous in the fall . . . bare and black in the winter . . . sometimes covered with snow . . . then spring . . . and before we are aware . . . they are covered with green.

The new lockers in the lower corridor . . . the smoke stack outside the library windows . . . these things we see every day . . . and don't notice them until they become tradition.

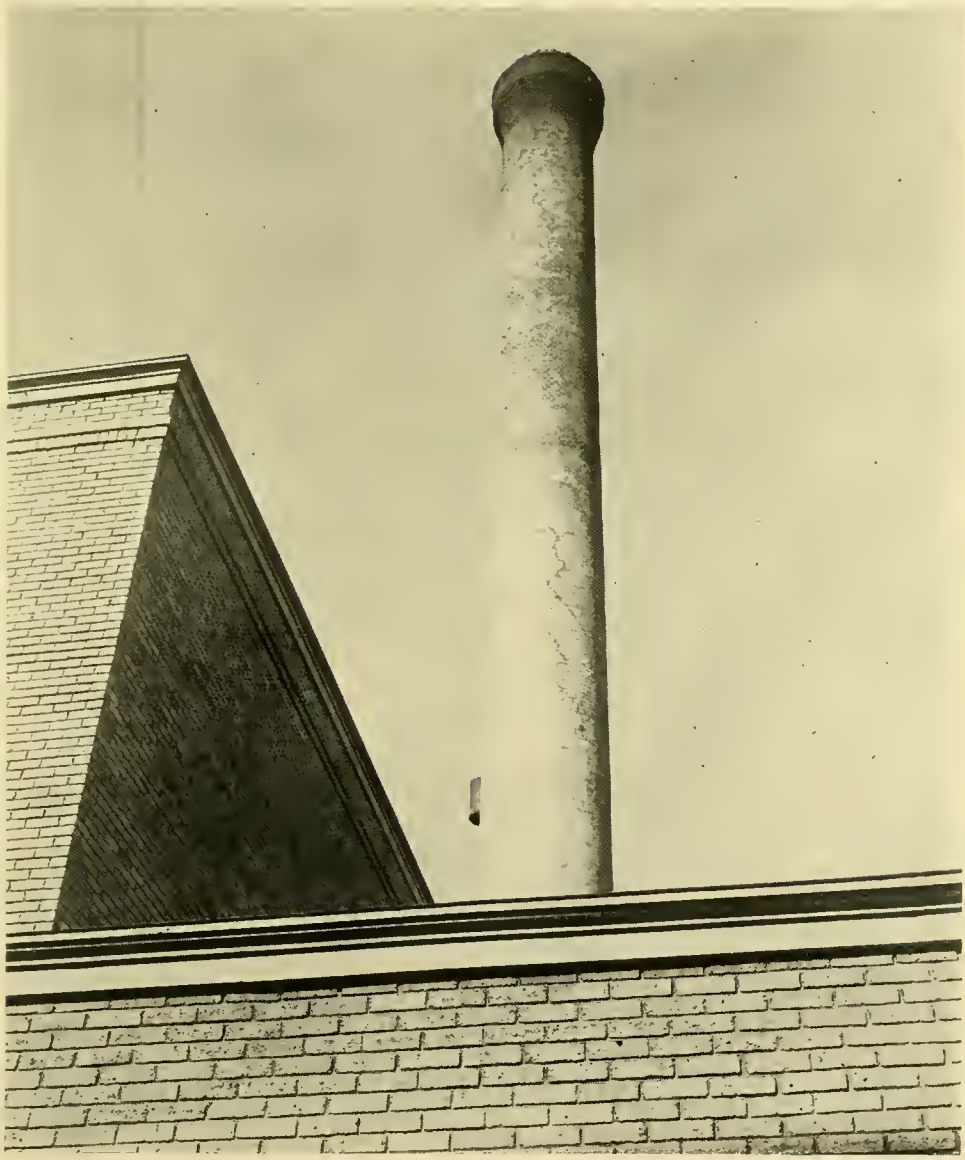
Scenic

◈ Clean cut . . . majestic . . . the front of the school . . . an appreciative view.

⟡ Doors of the Tiffany Gym . . . scenes of indoor athletic contests.

Picturesque . . . the entrance from another angle.

◈ Majestic . . . quaint . . . unnoticed by many . . . the highest point of the school.



Evans stadium . . . Joyous victory . . . Sad defeat.

Practical Arts awards for honest effort.

◇ Minerva, well known to all of us.

Marcel Farnum

◈ Divinely attired . . . in her mantle of white.

THE BOARD of Education . . . that group into whose hands has been entrusted the guiding of the Springfield Schools . . . that group which is the very foundation of all educational life.

The school executives . . . four experienced persons who set up the best ideals for 2,000 young people . . . and then help them to live up to those standards.

Last, but not least, the faculty . . . who guide the students during their years in Springfield High School . . . being living examples of honesty, scholarship, good sportsmanship . . . the high ideals that S. H. S. holds for her own.

EVANS STADIUM

SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS OF 1937-38

With only two lettermen back from the 1936 season . . . Springfield High School's Wildcat football team closed the season with four wins in nine starts . . . considered exceptionally good because of the unusually strong opposition Seven of the games were played on home territory . . . Springfield dropping the opener . . . winning four of the next five games. Constant improvement in each game indicated encouraging prospects for 1938.

In basketball . . . Springfield always presented a scrappy team . . . although the Wildcats ended on the short end of the score more times than otherwise . . . dropping ten and winning seven games. Against high-powered Southern Ohio Scholastic League competition the Gold and Blue was moderately successful . . . finishing fourth in this race . . . Portsmouth gaining the title. However a never-dying spirit kept the Wildcats in every game to the finish . . . and made the team one to be proud of.

Breaking a precedent . . . the 1938 Wildcat recounts all minor sport events of the preceding year. In the past the Wildcat has gone to press before the track, golf, and tennis seasons have gotten well under way . . . and as a consequence no permanent record of these events has been kept. Hereafter these records will be published . . . running just a year behind their occurrence.

Highly successful . . . all minor sports had well over their quota of victories . . . the track squad and cross country squad winning every dual meet . . . the tennis and golf teams setting up almost equally remarkable records. Springfield High dominated the Southern Ohio Scholastic League meet . . . finishing thirteen points ahead of Middletown . . . 1936 champions.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 1937 FOOTBALL SEASON

Springfield Wildcats 0 — 13 Columbus West Cowboys

Inaugural game of season . . . played under lights of Evans Stadium . . . Sept. 17. Cowboys displayed smashing power attack . . . taming lighter Wildcats. SHS team molded around two lettermen . . . showing flashes of brilliance . . . lengthy runs by Johnnie Slagle keeping Wildcats in game . . . marred by frequent fumbles. Twice Columbus solved Wildcat defense strategy . . . leading to first and third quarter touchdowns.

Springfield Wildcats 24 — 0 Cincinnati Roger Bacon

Inital Wildcat victory . . . night of Sept. 24 . . . at Evans Stadium. Springfield trampled invaders with four touchdowns . . . three coming in nine plays of second half . . . to the delight of Wildcat rooters. Slagle demonstrated uncanny broken-field running . . . breaking away for three scoring sprees . . . freak touchdown came as Art Dodd kicked off over Hill-Climbers' goal . . . Owen Seeley downing ball after Bacon man touched it.

Springfield Wildcats 6 — 0 Columbus Aquinas Terriers

Six minutes of spectacular Wildcat play brought lone score . . . Johnnie Slagle . . . Chuck Coleman . . . Dick Roberts toting the ball 70 yards from kickoff . . . under lights of Evans Stadium . . . Oct. 1. Aquinas proved no pushover, however, due to left half Fowler . . . Terrier running . . . punting artist. Second victory for Wildcats . . . displaying constant improvement.

✚

Nov. 19—The Eighteenth Annual Gold and Blue Minstrels were given in the auditorium with Don Davis acting as interlocutor. "Cannonball" Tony Wigginhorn, "Vestibule" Jack Allison, "Shampoo" John Kohl, and "Fluffy Duffy" Charles Black furnished black-faced fun as end-men amid the Southern setting of the Minstrels proper. Prof. August Humperdinkle, impersonated by Roland Hites, taught his German school in the Olio. The production was given before a full house under the direction of Mr. Eugene Hoak and Miss Ella Gaver.

✚

Nov. 24—Senior colors of gold and blue were displayed for the first time during the traditional Senior Day exercises held in the auditorium. A short ceremony, "The Passing of the Standard," was presented with Don Endter, Peggy Eberle, and Dick Wollam representing the seniors and Robert Sealock, Virginia McKune, and Dick Roberts representing the juniors. Wendell Carle signalled for the display of colors.

Dec. 5—Don Endter and H. B. Caldwell were victorious in the eighteenth annual Prince of Peace Contest. Both boys, survivors from a field of fourteen contestants, were to enter the Seventh Congressional District Contest at Wilmington, in competition for the privilege of representing the district in the state finals.

Jan. 14—"The Patsy," a three act comedy by Barry Conner, was presented by the January Class. Patricia Harrington (Pauline Baumgardner) is the "patsy" who runs second to her sister Grace (Vivian Roberts), so that Grace may be presented to advantage. Their father (Dick Smith), a traveling man, is on Pat's side and finally declares his independence by putting Ma (Maryann Harte) in her proper place. This brings about Patsy's ultimate triumph and needless to say, affords her happiness as the bride of the man she loves. Others in the cast were Charles Black, Robert Weikart, Wendell Carle, Clyde Patton, and Norma Nelson.

ECHOES OF METHUSELAH

The pompous judge glared sternly over his spectacles at the tattered prisoner, who had been dragged before the bar of justice on a charge of vagrancy.

"Have you ever earned a dollar in your life?" he asked in scorn.

"Yes, Your Honor," was the response, "I voted for you in the last election."

✚

The little Scotch boy reached home breathless. He said to his father "Daddy, I saved a nickel. Instead of riding home on the bus, I ran along side of it."

His father grew very angry and said, "Why didn't you run along side a taxi and save a quarter?"
